Starting July 1, 2019, USCIS has informed some Seattle area naturalization applicants that they must travel all the way to the Yakima field office for interviews and oath ceremonies. If you have difficulty traveling the far distance from Seattle to Yakima and back, the below information may be helpful.

NOTE: You may need use a taxi or rideshare service from the terminal to the USCIS field office. We recommend calling a Yakima cab company before leaving Seattle to ensure they can pick you up and drop you off to your appointment in time.
